Topographic
2747

Maryland

Reservoir Potomac River
Pricy Point to Point Lookout
1905

Steelman Fooney
Chief Of Party
Description Report.
Resurvey of the Potomac River
Piney Point to Point-Lookout,
St. Mary's County, Maryland

The country from Piney Point to Point-Lookout is low and flat, the highest elevation being 60 feet above mean high water on the Potomac River.

The country surveyed is partly forest land interspersed with fine farms under a good state of cultivation. Here are good wharves at Piney Point, St. George's Island, and the St. Mary's River, Smith's Creek, and at Point-Lookout.

Eight times, the Baltimore steam boat makes two trips a week to and from Baltimore and Washington at all of these wharves, except the latter one.

Piney Point, St. George's Island, and Smith's Creek are favorite resorts, and are freely patronized by Washington and Baltimore people.
And those leading to the Camp - Red, "Leonardtown," are in good condition during the summer and autumn months.

Respectfully submitted,

[Signature]

[N. T. [illegible]]